THE COPPER BEECH INN

The Copper Beech Inn, selected by Connecticut Magazine as “The Most Romantic Restaurant” and Connecticut’s “Best Country Inn,” provides a perfect venue for those couples seeking superlative dining, and elegant accommodations, a combination seldom found in one convenient location.

The Inn, located in the Connecticut River Valley, is centrally located and is just 2-hours from either Boston or New York.

Your dining options at The Inn are exceptional. The Copper Beech Restaurant, rated by USA Today/Zagat as one of America’s “Top 100 Hotel Restaurants,” is one of only two restaurants in Connecticut to hold both a 2009-2010 AAA Four-Diamond Rating and Wine Spectator’s “Best of Award of Excellence.” On the other hand, Brasserie Pip is chic and intimate with a gleaming copper-topped bar, the perfect place for cocktails, fresh oysters, house-made charcuterie and traditional bistro fare.

Both restaurants are a showcase for Executive Chef Tyler Anderson who is committed to serving sustainable seafood, and meats and vegetables that have been raised, foraged, farmed or produced within a 150-mile radius of the Inn. His style of cooking is very much modern American, with a New England influence. And he puts his spin on French bistro classics for the Inn’s Brasserie Pip. In April, 2010 he presented a “Sustainable Seafood” Menu at the James Beard House in New York. He has been honored to cook there to sold-out crowds for the past three consecutive years. More recently, Tyler was the winner of “Chopped” on the Food Network.

Please note that we customize the Dinner Menu to your requirements
